THINGS YOU NEED TO KNOW

CANCELLATIONS: If public schools are closed, GACE classes are automatically cancelled. If public schools have a delayed opening, afternoon and evening classes are held, unless announced otherwise on WGCH 1490 or on WSTC 1400 or on GCE voicemail at 203-625-7474, or on our website www.greenwichace.com. Classes cancelled due to inclement weather will be made up.

ABSENCE AND PERSONAL SCHEDULE CHANGES: Students assume all risk of changes in their personal schedules. Absence from the class does not reduce the cost of operating GACE programs. For this reason, an absence does not result in a refund.

REFUNDS: You will receive a refund only when GACE cancels a class or the class is oversubscribed.

REGISTRATION FEE: To offset increased operating costs we have a $5 registration fee. This fee is payable once per semester, and covers all the courses for which you may register during the semester.

GACE is committed to a policy of equal opportunity/affirmative action for all qualified persons and does not discriminate in any employment practice, education program, or educational activity on the basis of race, color, religious creed, sex, age, national origin, ancestry, marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, disability (including, but not limited to, intellectual disability, past or present history of mental disorder, physical disability or learning disability), genetic information, or any other basis prohibited by Connecticut state and/or federal nondiscrimination laws. Inquiries regarding GACE's nondiscrimination policies should be directed to Peggy Moore 203-625-7402.

GENERAL ACCESSIBILITY AND ACCOMMODATION: All activities offered by GACE are held in accessible locations. Accommodations for individuals with a disability are available upon request. Please contact Peggy Moore 203-625-7402.

GED® TEST ACCOMMODATIONS: Accommodations for the GED® test are available for qualified individuals with a disability. For more information, contact Peggy Moore at 203-625-7402. You may also contact Sabrina Mancini at the Connecticut State Department of Education at (860) 807-2110.

NO CHARGE FOR MATERIALS FOR MANDATED COURSES: GACE is in compliance with Connecticut General Statutes Sec.10-73a and does not charge fees for registration, textbooks or materials used in mandated program areas.

English as a Second Language

Clases de inglés son gratuitas para adultos que viven o trabajan en Greenwich. Las clases tienen lugar los lunes y los miércoles o los martes y los jueves empezando el 24 de septiembre de 2018. Las clases de día son de 9:30 a.m. hasta las 11:30 a.m. Las clases de noche son de 7:00 p.m. hasta las 9:00 p.m. en Greenwich High School.

FREE English classes for adults living or working in Greenwich. Learn to speak, read, and write English in a program that focuses on the skills needed in everyday life. Classes begin September 24, 2018 on Monday and Wednesday evenings from 7:00 to 9:00, or in the mornings on Mondays and Wednesdays or Tuesdays and Thursdays from 9:30 to 11:30.

Adult Basic Education

If your reading, writing and math skills are not strong enough for you to enter a high school program, or if you need to brush up for job training or employment, ABE is for you. Many adults need to work on these basic skills as a first step on their road to a diploma. Classes are held every Monday and Wednesday from 6:30 to 9:00 pm, beginning September 24.

GED Preparation

This program prepares adult learners to pass the 4-part, computer-based GED® exam to earn a State of Connecticut diploma. Students receive instruction in each of four subject areas – science, social studies, math and language arts – plus basic computer skills to take the exam.

Instructors will also review the official website, ged.com, where students can access related exam information and exam registration procedures. Students must be at least 17 years old and officially withdrawn from school to enroll in the GED® preparation classes listed here.

To be able to register for the GED® exam, students must be at least 17 years old and officially withdrawn from school for 6 months, and 17 year-olds must submit a withdrawal form with a parent or guardian signature.

Individuals who are 18 years of age may submit, in lieu of a withdrawal form, a letter from their last high school that the class with which they entered ninth grade (or would have entered if never enrolled in high school) has already graduated.

Students can begin the GED® registration process online at www.ged.com and complete the process in person at the address below.

Individuals with a documented disability who require accommodations to take the GED® exam should contact Peggy Moore at 203-625-7402 or gce@greenwich.k12.ct.us, or the State Department of Education GED Office at 860-807-2111 or email ged@ct.gov.

Classes are held every Monday and Wednesday from 6:30 to 9:00 pm, beginning September 24, 2018.

HOW TO REGISTER FOR ESL, GED, ABE, CITIZENSHIP OR AMERICAN STUDIES

In-person registration required for all new and returning students. All new students should allow two hours for registration and testing, and bring proof of residence or local employment. GED placement testing is only available during the evening sessions at Greenwich High School. For more information call: 203-625-7423 or email: kathy\_post@greenwich.k12.ct.us

The Art of the Personal Essay | Jacqueline Burt

Personal essays are consistently in demand by editors and an effective way to reach and relate to a wide variety of readers. Learn how to turn your own unique experiences into publishable essays for magazines, newspapers or websites. From the humorous to the profound, students will discover how to transform their tales into compelling pieces ready for publication. In this class, we will write and read personal essays, exploring methods of creating the right voice, tone, and tempo. The course will include advice on how and where to pitch completed essays. Students will need to take notes during class; either a notebook and pen or laptop will suffice.

Creative Writing Calisthenics | Vance Briceland

Are you looking to work out your imagination, attempt new techniques, and build a strong writer's discipline? This class will have you flexing your creative writing muscles, no matter what type of fiction or literary non-fiction you may be working. Every week participants will engage in short, fun, innovative exercises designed to inspire new ways to play with language, and then engage in weekly mentored critique sessions designed around their unique needs. Bring your works in progress—whether short stories, novels, memoirs, poetry or short plays—and exchange supportive, friendly feedback with your fellow writers. No matter what your experience level, you'll find something new to enrich your personal writing style.

When words leave off, music begins. Heinrich Heine

Mainly Oedipus | Anne Gilhuly

We've read Sophocles' great tragedy OEDIPUS THE KING before. Now, having studied the Athens Sophocles lived in and fought for, having examined the life of his friend Pericles and Pericles' vision for Athens (described in his Funeral Oration) let's turn back to OEDIPUS for a deeper understanding. We'll check in briefly with Aristotle and Freud for their views and then move quickly to a more modern one, paradoxically achieved by concentrating on Sophocles' own moment in 5th century BCE Athens with all its intellectual and religious ferment. In the later classes we'll take what we've learned to a rereading of ANTIGONE, and even to a third of Sophocles tragedies if time permits.

Our text will be the Penguin Classics edition of SOPHOCLES, THE THREE THEBAN PLAYS in Robert Fagles translation. Please read OEDIPUS THE KING for our first class.

#15000A      4 Weds      4:00 PM - 5:50 PM
10/10/18-10/31/18    Room 304      $99.00

Guitar Beginner | Roger White

Learn to find your way around on the guitar in the company of others who are just starting their own musical journey on this beautiful instrument. A companionable way to begin learning to read staff notation, tablature, chords and the other basics you'll need for your foundation as a guitar player. Once mastered, you can use these guitar skills to play any kind of music. Please bring your own guitar (anything is fine as long as it doesn't plug in) Materials provided by the instructor.

The Power of Plant-Based Nutrition | Janet Levine, R.D., D.M.D.

How whole foods and common spices can prevent and reverse disease without side effects.

Eating a whole food, plant-based diet has been scientifically proven to prevent and even reverse chronic illnesses, including heart disease, diabetes and gastro intestinal diseases. It is also the diet many athletes choose to achieve maximum performance.

Come find out how simple it can be to prepare plant-based foods that are satisfying, nutrition packed, and taste amazing!

In this presentation, you will discover:

1. What eating plant-based really means and why it's so healthy
2. How plant-based nutrition can be healthier and more effective than medication when treating many common diseases.

Janet is a registered dietitian and dentist. She has always been fascinated by the effects of good nutrition on health. After learning about plant-based nutrition seven years ago, she completely changed her definition of "healthy foods." Janet is passionate about helping people learn what foods to eat that help to avoid chronic diseases, and eliminate the need for many medications.

Fundamentals of Inventory and Control Management for Business | Marvin M. Foster, MHM

Understanding fundamentals of inventory management is a critical undertaking in every organization.

Inventory control is also important to maintaining the right balance of supplies in your warehouses, offices and storage facilities:

Reasons why Inventory and Control Management is important:

1. Control costs
2. Improve turnaround
3. Free-up square needed spaces/square footages
4. Manage planning and forecasting

Negative effective for not understanding the fundamentals of inventory management

Trigger profit losses—whether a product expires, gets damaged, or goes out of season

Financial Implications—because stocks are money that could be used in other venture
